

EARL BREWER MAY OPPOSE WILLIAMS FOR U. S. SENATE

MEMPHIS, Miss., March 10 (AP)—Ex-Gov. Earl Brewer will be a candidate for United States senator to succeed John H. Williams, according to good authority here, who said that while the former governor had not announced, he felt certain he would do so in a short while. Senator Williams has put Congressman Venable in the field, declaring he would make a race. Others are expected to get in the race when the hot weather sets in and begin an active campaign.

Former Attorney-General Ross A. Collins, who made a fine race for governor at the last election, carrying this district, is making a quiet campaign for the congressional race of Mr. Venable, who has not yet announced whether he will re-enter the race for congressman or take up the race for senator.

No Other Light Car Offers So Much

Unusual power and control, quick pick-up and extraordinary acceleration to features inherent in the Cleveland Six and features with which Cleveland owner Many a Cleveland Six owner has said, "It would be hard to tell you what Cleveland honestly is. It's wonderful."

The Cleveland is wonderful because it is a splendidly developed and finished product, not a car rushed into the market. Three years ago the plans for production of this car were far advanced. But, with war approaching, production and marketing were delayed though experimental and engineering work were continued and test cars kept on the road. When war ended, came the Cleveland.

Built in a fine big factory, with all conditions and
